

THE BBC WANTS TO SPEAK TO OLD ST AUGUSTINE'S GIRLS OF ALL AGES

Three 60 minute documentary films are being made for BBC4 about the experience of being Catholic in Britain today.

As part of our research, we want to talk to a wide range of women about their Catholic identity. We're interested in how Catholicism shapes women's lives, whether for good or for bad. We're interested in those who are practising and devout as well as those who are struggling or lapsed.

We would like to find a number of girls who attended the same school and had the same Catholic education, and then speak to them about where their lives have taken them and the part that Catholicism has played and continues to play. The women could be from the same class and have known each other at school, or be from different years and therefore a range of ages and generations.

If you can spare a few moments, we would very much appreciate the opportunity for an off the record conversation which respects your confidentiality.

If you are happy to talk then please email Jennifer Forde at jennifer@wingspanproductions.co.uk

We very much look forward to hearing from you.
