Dear Parents,

Another full week seems to have raced by. After school sports clubs have now started and the sign up sheets for Minor Activities have been completed ~ many thanks to the VIth Form as usual for running these. The Parents' Association had a very successful meeting during the week and already exciting plans are taking shape for the Christmas Fayre. The auditions for Oh, what a lovely war! have been held and the cast list will be out for next week. At the time of writing the IT technicians are testing the web link for the screening of the Papal Big Assembly. The Geography Department have already been out on an educational trip, Senior Chamber Choir and the Tour Choir have started rehearsing. The Art Department's VIth Form Life Drawing classes have started after school. Members of the VIth Form took part in this year's Queen Charlotte's Ball. So it's been all go really.

Let down by our Corner Shop

We regret to inform readers of the ongoing problems which the School is having with Harrods, our uniform suppliers and 'corner shop'. Despite assuring us that they had more than adequate stocks of all aspects of our uniform, but especially the PE kit, which is being supplied by Harrods for the first time this year, it turns out that they, in fact, do not have stocks of the PE kit, the choir skirt, the choir polo shirt nor the vital grey hoodie. Furthermore some of the sales assistants had been telling some of our parents that Harrods does not supply the PE kit, and that they had to buy it from us. This is not the case.

Ms McCarthy is on the case and we hope to have better news next issue. Watch this space!

This sporting life

A quick reminder that the Inter-House Sports competition is with us next Friday from approximately 11am at the Battersea Athletics stadium. Parents who would like to join us for this, the first of the Inter-House competitions of this year, would be most welcome. Come along and support both your daughter and also her House.

Going around the Houses

The Inter-House season is now underway, with the first Recording of the term. It is clear that the new House Captains have come out fighting with Canterbury in the lead. Could it be that this is Canterbury's year, or will Walsingham be able to make it two years in a row for the House of the Year Shield? Only time will tell.

GRAND TOTAL
CANTERBURY	14
IONA	9
SANTIAGO	10
